LOS ANGELES.

Edmund M. Price extends to you all a cordial greeting by his re-appearance in the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL as Los Angeles' regular correspondent. He hopes that the reappearance of the Los Angeles news-letter will be an agreeable surprise to the readers of the JOURNAL. Its long non-appearance must be attributed to an accident which occurred to the writer, necessitating an operation on the middle finger of his right hand. Its painful condition prevented his using it for several weeks. By a peculiar combination of circumstances, three successive accidents happened to the same finger—the first being caused by a foul tip in a game of indoor baseball. Other injuries followed until finally an x-ray picture showed the finger to be so badly out of joint that a visit to the Good Samaritan Hospital was necessary. As a result the joint is permanently stiffened, and consequently the writer, who has also always been an enthusiastic sportsman and athlete, begins to feel that his sporting days are over. He is now back at his old job, after an absence of two months.

First of all, those who plan to come to Los Angeles, before the opening of the new Goodyear Tire and Rubber factory, in order to secure employment with the factory are advised to remain where they are until it is ready to begin operations. It would be advisable for them to send in their applications to the Goodyear Company, and secure employment positively before they come here. The new factory is nearing completion. It is thought it will be ready for operation next month.

On the 26th of January, the city of Los Angeles welcomed our Nation's greatest hero, General John J. Pershing, in its warmest manner. His appearance along Broadway attracted the admiration of countless people, who enthusiastically greeted him as "Black Jack," and also showered him with all kinds of flowers. General Pershing's stay here was cut short, owing to his pre-arranged schedule. During his brief visit here he attended a grand banquet, where he met Admiral Rodman of the Pacific Fleet, and was showered with several handsome gifts. Before General left he said he would not forget what a grand reception Los Angeles had tendered him.

In the early part of February, at the conclusion of the program held at the Los Angeles Silent Club, a large party of its members and visitors wearing their khaki suits took the last car at midnight. On their arrival at the foot of the mountains they started to hike up in a line along the narrow and winding path continually all night, by means of searchlights, and reached the summit of Mt. Wilson early in the morning. Much to their disappointment they found no snow there. However, the hikers spent several hours there for a rest before they returned home. They did not get home until after dark, very tired. The next morning they could hardly walk, owing to the stiffness in their legs. Some of them said "Never again!" while some others would go hiking up again. Mrs. Arthur Hultene, the daughter of the writer, was a very strong hiker and walked both ways, exhibiting no signs of fatigue. She used to climb up mountains in her school days.

Not long ago, the city of Los Angeles was deserted by a great many people, who flocked out to San Diego by train and motor to attend the grand opening of the horse races at Tia Juana, Mexico, about one hundred and seventy-five miles from here.

February 21st was the scene of a grand masquerade party at the Los Angeles Silent Club, in which two hundred participated. The feature of the affair was Mr. and Mrs. McLane, both playing 'Wild Africans.' Miss Wheeler, Hawaii girl, and Mrs. Arthur Hultene, "Scarecrow." The speaking judges had a hard time picking out the winners. Each of the winners won five dollars in greenbacks. The winners of the most beautiful were Mrs. Phelps and Mr. Nelson Wood, of Santa Barbara; the most original, Mrs. Hultene and Mr. McLane; and the most funny, Mrs. Singleton and Mr. Smith. The event was in charge of Chairman Phelps and his committee, who received much praise for their excellent work in making it a howling success. It will be a long remembered event.

The most sincere sympathy of the Los Angeles Silent Club is extended to Mr. Waldo Rotherth in his bereavement, especially all those who have been under his father's superintendency. We have not forgotten what a nice visit we had from Mr. Waldo Rotherth. We are looking forward to his removal here from Omaha every day.

Mrs. Thomas C. Singleton, formerly of Los Angeles, Cal., but now of Eureka, Oregon, has recently become a benedict by marrying Miss Flora F. Dunbar, of Colorado. Miss Dunbar was a frequent visitor at the Los Angeles Silent Club. Best wishes for their happy married life. We expect the newly-weds to come and live here permanently in the future.

Miss E. Vandegrift, who used to be Mrs. Thompson's companion for a number of years, and who has also been in Los Angeles for that period, is now at the California School for the Deaf as an assistant matron. It is predicted that she will come down and renew her old acquaintances after the close of the school for the summer.

On a business trip to Yuma, Arizona, Leon A. Fisk has gone indefinitely. During his stay there he is to look after his recently purchased land, and may improve it with a house and garden. It is quite certain that the loneliness of the place will compel him to return to Los Angeles shortly.

Without the knowledge of the Silent San Franciscans, George Schmidt slipped into the city of Los Angeles and renewed his old acquaintances at the Los Angeles Silent Club. He expects to remain here as long as his work continues.

It is announced that July 4th, has been decided upon for the picnic at Anaheim Landing to be given by the Los Angeles Silent Club. Its recently appointed committee is going to leave no stone unturned to make it the best picnic ever had. Bear this in mind.

The membership of the Los Angeles Silent Club is now well over one hundred and fifty. Some more are coming to join the club right away. Do join us in the fun. It will be news to her many Porterville friends to know that Mrs. Anna Cummings has a steady position with the printing trade as a bookbinder, which keeps her in comfortable circumstances. She is also a member of the Los Angeles Silent Club.

One of the most interesting social events of the season was the box social party at the Los Angeles Silent Club a few weeks ago. An unusually large number of guests were in attendance. There were on a long table many lunch boxes beautifully decorated by the ladies. The judges did not have an easy time picking out the best decorated box, which belonged to Mrs. Arthur Hultene. She won a prize in the form of a gold pencil-holder. For the benefit of the Los Angeles Silent Club all the boxes were auctioned off by Mr. Phelps, who was as good an auctioneer as any town auctioneer. There was all sorts of fun over the auction, and some excitement in bidding as high as they could. The highest bidder, Mr. Meplam, who paid twenty-two dollars for the best decorated box, received a gold pencil holder as a prize. The proceeds, amounting to over eighty-five dollars, were turned over to the club's fund. All the purchasers partook of the lunch boxes and were generously treated to hot coffee. They enjoyed themselves to the full extent.

As the business meeting of the Los Angeles Silent Club was in progress, Mrs. H. Terry took the place of Mr. Fisk, who left for Arizona, as President of the club, and Mr. Ould also took her place as Vice-President. It is with a feeling of sincere regret that Mr. Fisk could not be with us for some time.

Mr. Arthur Hultene's mother greatly surprised him by entering his house, just after she arrived from Iowa, when he was at supper. She has been with him for over three weeks, and returned east two weeks ago.

Friends of Mr. Hodgman, the retired lumber man in Minnesota, will be pleased to know that he and his wife have been passing the winter at Ocean Park, the beach resort, and are going to prolong their stay through the summer.

Not long ago, the main feature of the well-arranged program rendered by the Los Angeles Silent Club was a debate on the subject "Wet" or "Dry," in the presence of a large gathering of the deaf. This brought forth lots of fun and applause. At the end of the program the judges decided in favor of the "Wet" debaters, who were Mrs. Price and Mr. Brown. "Dry" debaters were Mrs. Cummings and Mr. Chaney.

Mr. William Dudley, the lucky and wealthy man, is evidently stuck on Santa Monica or its environs. He showed such evidence by purchasing a nine room house there. Why not run it as a hotel for the accommodation of the Silent easterners who fail to get rooms in Los Angeles.

On February 28th the grand opening of the Speedway at Beverly, near here, which is said to be the finest track in the country, drew nearly fifty-five thousand enthusiastic autoists to see the great auto races. Jimmy Murphy, the youngest of all, won a purse of three thousand dollars in the one hundred fifty mile race. Most of the deaf witnessed him.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Reddick were stopping off here on their way up north to their ranch near Fresno, to see their old Missouri friends. They will return and locate permanently after a few years.

Prof. Barrett, the wellknown professor, who has taught at the Iowa School for the Deaf for many years, is in our old California, where we have no snow, but roses and sunshine. He has about decided to reside here permanently, and expects his wife to come and join him soon. He has joined the Los Angeles Silent Club.

Having passed the winter season in our city, Mr. and Mrs. William Glibney returned east to Detroit last week. They highly praised our wonderful climate and also our hospitality. They attended the Los Angeles Silent Club regularly during their stay here. The Club members regret their departure for that city, but hope they will some day make their home here.

Miss Bradley, the ex-pupil of the California School for the Deaf, who recently returned to her old Long Beach home, after a few years' absence in Iowa, was married to Mr. Joseph Evers last week. After a brief honeymoon they will reside in Watts, near here. A large party of their friends from Los Angeles attended their wedding in Long Beach.

Mr. W. Riley's loss of position here compelled him to seek out some new place, where he could obtain steady work. He finally secured a situation in San Francisco and has since then been getting along pretty well. He has been an Angeleno for several years.

In honor of the tenth anniversary of the Local Division, No. 27, all its members attended a grand smoker in Grand Hall at Walker building, on March 15th, and enjoyed the program and amusements exceedingly. They were the best ever had since the organization of the division, due to the excellent work of Chairman Matheis and his committee. The evening ended with the serving of dainty refreshments.

Isn't it strange to mention that Mr. Matheis wears a card with words on it "Keep smiling," wherever he goes. He strongly believes in bringing good luck.

On the evening of March 21st, Mr. Hunt, who is believed to be a second Herman, entertained the members of the Los Angeles Silent Club with many wonderful tricks. They were greatly interested in his magic.

The coming of Carpentier, the champion heavyweight of Europe, will be the most interesting addition to the colony of ex-champion and champion pugilists. He has secured a contract with one of the local film studios.

The arrival recently of a wee baby-boy was heartily welcomed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Handley at Whittier. They received lots of congratulations from their friends in Los Angeles, especially from the Los Angeles Silent Club, on the event.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Terry, who is unusually bright and sweet, is to graduate with honors from the Hollywood High School this coming Summer. They expect to send her to the University of California next Fall.

Having returned from Philadelphia, where they spent a couple of years, Mr. and Mrs. Doodson and baby have located in their old home with their folks permanently. Mr. Doodson had no trouble obtaining steady employment. He has become a member of the Los Angeles Silent Club.

Mrs. Arnold Keine was a welcome visitor at the Los Angeles Silent Club several Saturdays ago, and renewed her old acquaintances after many months' absence. She is preparing for a trip to her home in West Virginia very soon.

Mrs. Tilley was down from San Francisco visiting with Mrs. Sonneborn for several weeks, and returned north. She was one of the interesting guests at the Los Angeles Silent Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Gronlund were more than surprised to find a large host of friends when they called at the residence of Mrs. I. Haworth, who entertained them with a shower party in honor of the newly-weds. The couple were showered with all kinds of useful articles and were greatly pleased with them. Refreshments of ice cream and cake followed.

Friends of Miss Susie McKee were quite surprised with her re-appearance at the Los Angeles Silent Club after her long absence. She looks just the same, but is a little older. She expects to reside here permanently if everything goes well.

Mr. Morton Sonneborn's friends back in the east will really regret to learn of his being paralyzed on the left side, and also of his losing of his left eye sight. It occurred quite a long time ago; since then he has been gradually convalescing. Best wishes for his speedy recovery.

Mr. N. Boneti and his lovely wife made a flying trip down here from San Jose and visited the Los Angeles Silent Club and returned home immediately.

Mrs. Mary Emery, the wife of the founder of the Kansas School for the Deaf, was one of our winter guests. She comes to the land of flowers and sunshine whenever the cold winter season sets in the east. She has just returned to Chicago.

Mr. William Tyhurst, who tried to reside here permanently, but was forced to return home by being unable to get a steady job, got married last week. Accompanied by his bride he was here on their short honeymoon trip. They said they had promised to come and make their home here this coming summer. They will be new additions to the Los Angeles Silent Club's membership.

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Kett, a group of their young friends were entertained at the St. Patrick's party on the Eve of March 17th. The house was attractively decorated for the occasion in green crepe. A pleasant game for two prizes was indulged in before dinner was announced. The party broke up at a late hour, the guests having had a most enjoyable evening. By the way, Mr. and Mrs. William Tyhurst, who were down on their honeymoon tour, greatly surprised them by calling, and were showered with congratulations.

Mr. P. R. Wear, whose deaf brother had been in failing health in California for some time, and had to leave for the east, dying soon afterwards, is in town now, and never misses the Los Angeles Silent Club. He is a Missourian.

Mr. Milton Miller and his cousin formed a partnership in the purchase of a new Dodge auto. Milton is so proud of it that his friends find him giving the auto a good cleaning every time they call at his home. His brother-in-law, Mr. Samuelson, may follow suit.

Hailing from Columbia, Mo., and locating here permanently, are Mr. and Mrs. Edwards. They have become regular members of the Los Angeles Silent Club.

Not long ago, Mr. William H.

Phelps disposed of his new four-room flat apartment house, but he has another eight-flat apartment house, built in the Spanish style, nearing completion. Opposite it there is a new flat apartment going up, which keeps him busy looking after it for his sister, Mrs. Waldo Rotherth, who is now in Omaha, Nebraska.

Friends of Mr. Irving Cohen and his sweetheart, Miss Lizzie Caplan, in New York City, will be sorry to learn that under the climatic influence they can hardly shake off the dust of Los Angeles and return to that city. They are both active members of the Los Angeles Silent Club.

It is with a feeling of sincere sorrow we learn that the California School for the Deaf has recently been deprived of such a valuable Superintendent as M. Milligan. He was a very well educated and respectable man, and was greatly loved by all those connected with the Institution. When he was in failing health he had to leave for Colorado in hopes that its climate would benefit him. But he took a relapse and died soon afterwards. Our most sincere sympathies are extended to his family. His place has not as yet been filled.

The writer nearly lost his head when Mr. William Glibney generously donated five dollars to the Los Angeles Silent Club before he left for the east. It helped swell its fund. Hearty thanks for the donation. His pleasant and long visit with us will not be forgotten.

Just arrived in Los Angeles from Minneapolis is Mr. George Cosgrove. He is waiting for the opening of the new Goodyear Tire and Rubber factory. Before he came he was for a time employed by the same factory at Akron, Ohio. He has become a real Angeleno.

Mr. George Schmidt is a regular grasshopper, as he has the habit of jumping from place to place after a short time. As proof of this, he has again left for the north.

The writer went down to Tia Juana, Mexico, by the night train, arriving there early in the morning. He chanced to meet his friends from Los Angeles, who took an auto ride down there during the night. They had an opportunity to see Jack Johnson, the ex-champion heavy weight of the country. His friends returned home soon after they had visited around that town, for fear that the tires might be blown out and keep them back all night. They did not get home till after the writer had reached here the next morning. The party said that they had a hard time during the night on account of the tires being blown out twelve times on their way home, except Miss Meyers and Mr. Herrig, who luckily took the train home.

Mr. Lawrence A. G. Holmes and wife are at present. They came from Iowa, where they were anxious to start West to the land they have heard so much about.

The writer was invited to spend a day at Mrs. H. Terry's when he was off duty, on account of his injured finger. He was shown around the house by her husband and also the backyard, where he keeps lots of chickens and rabbits and even his Ford in a garage. They seem to be so proud of having everything of their own. As they were old college mates of the writer, the visit was mutually enjoyed.

The fame of Mrs. H. Terry seems to be spreading all over the earth as a clever writer, especially in her very strong opposition to oralism. She never gives up writing and addressing until she has successfully crushed that subject. If she succeeds she will certainly receive a reward.

A few weeks ago forty thousand people fled from Michigan to the Southland, on account of twelve inches of snow and also twenty-eight degrees below. They were so impressed with the beauties and delights of California that most of them have decided to reside permanently.

Enjoying a visit of several weeks' length in our city is Mr. Louis Noonan. He is from Iowa, and is expected to be a constant resident. To get rid of lonesomeness he attends the Los Angeles Silent Club frequently.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Hammond, formerly of Tacoma, Wash., have purchased a handsome cottage in Huntington Park near here. It is of the colonial type. They have not been down to the Los Angeles Silent Club for several weeks. That they have been as busy as bees beautifying the house is the reason.

Mount Wilson travel has increased considerably every day now, bringing in a steady stream of tourists, who essay the steep trails.

Santa Barbara was too lonely for Mr. Augustine Cordero to live in, though that place is so beautiful. So he decided to try his own luck by coming down, and found many mates around here. Consequently he has located here permanently. He is much interested in the Los Angeles Silent Club.

After a year's absence Miss Cora Hitesman came back to our city, and is proving a delightful acquisition to the Los Angeles Silent Club. She said that she was so glad to get away from such a lonely place as Portoto, and that she would not leave here again.

Mrs. and Mrs. Julian Singleton, the newly-weds, were recipients of a pretty compliment recently, given in their honor by Mr. and Mrs. L. Ross.

There was a great deal of surprise expressed among the local deaf over the marriage of Miss Schuman of Chicago, and Mr. Simon Strauss, of New York City, as they had only been going together a few weeks, and they had also not been here long. The couple took their honeymoon tour to the Pork City.

Somehow or other the story got out, and finally came to the ears of the local deaf that Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Rotherth are coming out to make our city their permanent home some time next month. If that is so, we will sympathize with the deaf of Omaha for losing their most popular friends.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Cokefair, who were recent tourists from Colorado, were so taken with the climate of the Southland that they have bought a home here. Mr. Cokefair's health was not good in that State, but he is himself again now. They are spirited members of the Los Angeles Silent Club.

We are soon to have a great pleasure pier at Ocean Park beach, it being the longest pier on this coast. It will be 650 feet long. The pier space will be devoted to amusement concessions, such as a roller coaster, etc.

The Southland was well drenched by the rainfall of the last five days. A fine steady rainfall through the days doing much good to the crops in the country.

Miss Fera Burfield, whose home is in Greeley, Colorado, is numbered among the newcomers. She was accompanied by her folks who came with a view of locating here permanently.

Recently arriving from Nebraska is Miss Nellie Rutledge, who was accompanied by her father. They are permanently located in Pasadena, where he has a position as conductor on the Pacific Electric car. Miss Rutledge proves to have much interest in the Los Angeles Silent Club by attending it almost regularly, in spite of the club being so far from that city.

Latest arrival at the Los Angeles Silent Club is Miss Ida Overton, who hailed from Clinton, Mo. She is permanently domiciled with her sister near here. The most recent visitors at the Los Angeles Silent Club were Mr. and Mrs. Ethan J. Ferris, who have given up their sweet home in Nebraska to live here permanently. Mr. Ferris used to do lots of writing for various deaf newspapers. They have a daughter who is an actress at one of the local film studios.

Miss Nina Roach came from Indiana to prove if what she had often heard of our city is the truth. Now she is so anxious to remain in the Southland, which she says is the most beautiful spot on earth.

Noticed on the register at the Los Angeles Silent Club as newcomer is Mr. Victor Neprash, who is a Kansan. He expressed himself as delighted with his own home and most especially with the beauties of Southland.

Being summoned by important business, Mr. H. Terry left for St. Louis immediately. His absence is not thought to be long. However, the change and trip will benefit him a great deal.

Coming as a complete surprise to their friends, Miss March, of this city, became the bride of Mr. Harold Cliff, of Iowa. The happy couple had a brief honeymoon trip and returned here. Mr. Cliff is so fortunate in marrying the young lady, whose folks are wealthy, that he is taking life easy. They call at Los Angeles Silent Club frequently.

Last month Mr. Frank Roberts met with a serious accident, resulting in the fracture of his right ankle. On the way home in the dark, he was going across the street when an auto running at full speed got in his way. He failed to dodge it, so he was knocked down, will be laid up for some time. On close investigation, it was found out that the auto's owner was to blame, and had to pay his doctor bill, etc. Mrs. Roberts' friends are deluging him with flowers. A bouquet of flowers was also given him from the Los Angeles Silent Club. Best wishes for his speedy recovery.

Mr. Edward Daly, who visited with his chum Arthur Hultene last summer, recently got his arm badly injured in an auto accident at Rockford, Ill., but it will soon be healed up. The recent death of his father might possibly keep him from coming out here to live permanently, as his mother depends on him mostly.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Larson are making preparations for an extended eastern trip by motor in a few weeks. They are to visit folks in Minnesota and Wisconsin, whom they have not seen for a long time. Their absence will be until next fall.

Mr. Melvin Clements had the misfortune to have a part of the middle finger of his left hand cut off in a buzz planer last month. It will be several weeks before he can return to his old job. He is one of the most popular members of the Los Angeles Silent Club.

Mrs. Frank Roberts entertained at a very pleasant card party at her home a few weeks ago. The winners were awarded prizes.

Here to enjoy the beauties of Southern California for the winter, while his home in McPherson, Kansas, was very cold and snowy, was Mr. William Tipton. All the members of the Los Angeles Silent Club are greatly interested in him, because of his natural wit. They missed him very much when he returned home. Mr. Tipton said he would have another visit here next winter, unless something happened to prevent.

That the writer predicted some time ago that Mr. Leon Fisk would shortly return him from Arizona, is correct, as he is with us once more.

Remember that the Los Angeles Silent Club is always ready to welcome a silent visitor, who is planning to visit our city.

He's true to God who's true to man:
Wherever wrong is done
To the humblest and the weakest

NEW YORK.

News items for this column should be sent direct to the DEAF-MUTES JOURNAL, Station M, New York.
A few words of information in a letter postal card is sufficient. We will do the rest.

On Friday evening, June 11th, Arthur C. Bachrach was pleasantly reminded of the fact that Father Time had scored a half a century of years to his record on this mundane sphere.

Unknown to him, his loving wife and Mrs. Bramson had made elaborate preparations for the event. So on that evening the parlor of the Bachrach domicile on West 175th Street, was filled with gentlemen and ladies who had come to help celebrate.

For an hour or so conversation held sway, and then the ladies retired to an adjoining room, re-appearing in complete costumes of red crepe paper, including the hats. They presented a charming picture as they danced into the room. The paper dresses and hats were of home manufacture and were excellently constructed to fit the wearers respectively.

At ten o'clock all repaired to the dining room, where a delicious home-cooked supper was served, consisting of relishes, shrimp salad, cold cuts of roast beef, tongue, chicken, salted almonds, ice cream, cake and coffee. Mr. Bachrach passed round a box of perfectos to the gentlemen, while the ladies were tickling their palates with chocolate and mints.

In behalf of friends present and absent, Mr. Marx Levy arose and made a fine speech, outlining Mr. Bachrach's career from boyhood up to his present fifty years—though he did not look more than thirty. He then presented Mr. Bachrach with an ash tray, which the latter received with pleasure and a few words of thanks. Evidently he did not expect anything more, as he looked surprised when Mr. Levy again arose and presented him a finger ring of Roman gold, bearing his initials in Japanese style, and set with a fine ruby and a diamond. This was followed by the presentation of a basket of cut flowers.

Complimentary speeches were made by Messrs. Samuel Frankenheim, Edwin A. Hodgson, Henry C. Kohlman, Felix A. Simonson, Mrs. Levy, Charles McMann, Sam Lowenherz, Emil Basch, Samuel Kohn, Mrs. M. W. Loew, Mrs. Bachrach, Mrs. Simon Hirsch, and Merton Moses.

At the head of the U-shaped table was a huge birthday cake circled with fifty lighted candles. This was a gift of Mr. and Mrs. Marx Levy. Another cake, made by Mrs. Bachrach, was large in circumference and height, and most delicious to the taste. It was called "ice-box cake."

The dining room was decorated with chains of crepe paper in red, white and blue, and appended to them were blue birds in flight. The table cover was of blue bird design also. So if the blue bird brings happiness, the home nest of Mr. and Mrs. Bachrach, and their pretty twelve-year-old daughter, Cecelia, is surely filled with joy.

Besides those mentioned in the list of after-dinner speakers, there were present: Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Goldberg, Mrs. Simonson, Mrs. McMann, Mrs. Lowenherz, Mrs. Samuel Kohn, Mr. and Mrs. Bramson, Messrs. M. W. Loew and Simon Hirsch.

Mr. Wm. W. Thomas successfully launched a theatrical entertainment at St. Ann's Church Guild Room, on Saturday night, June 12th.

There were two plays, the first being a curtain raiser, in which Mr. Thomas and Mrs. McCluskey were the lazy husband and industrious housewife, respectively. They had seven daughters figuring in the npeck of the home and a son as lazy as the father. The daughters were impersonated by Mrs. Fosmire and Miss Craig, as twin children of the lollypop age, Misses Katie Bredemeyer, Elsie Grossman, Elizabeth MacLaire, Anna Klaus, Mary Ruhl and Mabel Hall.

The next play had quite an array of talent, and was filled with fun for the spectators. It was called—

THE MATINEE IDOL.

The Matinee Idol.....Wm. W. Thomas
The Enamored Lady.....Miss A. E. Judge
Stenographer.....Miss Mabel Hall
Villains.....Messrs. Pfandler and Livingstone
Heroine.....Miss Elsie Grossman
Stage Manager.....John N. Funk

The stage manager was bothered with applicants for theatrical fame, all of whom caused laughter by their antics in tests of ability. Miss Agnes Craig was a country wench, Miss Ruhl a swell dresser, Miss Bredemeyer a country gymnast, Miss Klaus a village singer, Mrs. Fosmire a veteran actress, Miss MacLaire a runaway girl, Miss Grossman a professional actress.

Adolph Pfandler as stage door-keeper was really fine, and he and Miss Judge and a bandbox combined to bring down the house.

The attendance was very good, and everybody enjoyed the plays and wants to see more of the same kind and quality.

SILENT ATHLETIC CLUB NOTES.

The club's first annual picnic will be held at Dexter Park, Jamaica, L. I., on Saturday afternoon, June 26th, which marks the opening of the season in this locality. The outlook is very rosy, as far as the selling of tickets is concerned. There will be large delegations from New Jersey and Connecticut. Many of them are well known to the local deaf. No doubt many will be renewing acquaintances with old friends after long months of silence.

Prizes will be given for athletic events for both ladies and gentlemen. There will be 100 yard dash, 400 yard run and two mile run for gents, and 50 yard run and ball throwing contests for ladies. There will be fine bowling for prizes.

Children, from 10 to 15 years, will be admitted for twenty-five cents. Refreshments will be served at the grove at reasonable prices, but it is best to bring lunch baskets.

Xavier Ephphetaus interchanged "Au Revoirs" at June's first Sunday meeting, until August 8th, when the annual Ephphetaus Sunday Celebration will be held. Father Dalton was in merry mood at the closing meeting. Incidentally he added not one but two "splices" to his growing record as a contestant in the year in and year out fixture known as the Matrimonial-Tying-Marathon.

Both ceremonies took place before the superb main altar of St. Francis Xavier's Upper Church. At 4:30 Miss Lina Kaufman, not long since one of Prof. Taylor's prettiest and brightest pupils, was united to Mr. James Harrington, a snappy member of St. Joseph's alumni. The bridesmaid was Miss Marguerite Collins, a cousin. The best man, a brother of the groom, prominent in Knights of Columbus circles.

The bride and her attendant looked very fetching in gowns of white, soft, clinging, lispig, airy, fairy material, with great pictures hats. Each carried the daintiest nuptial bokay. And, oh, Mabel, Father Dalton, this time, was attended by two of the blondest haired altar boys you ever saw, in cream tinted, scarlet-trimmed cassocks. With the bridal party facing them, he stood on the top step of the altar, where all the deaf could follow his recital of the nuptial ceremony, at the same time repeating it audibly, so hearing friends of the now Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Harrington would not feel slighted.

On leaving the church, the couple were all but mobbed by their friends, and entering autos, whiffed away to Brooklyn, where a reception was held at the Harrington home and where they have a bungalow for two.

And, Dearie, hardly had the Harrington car reached the big span, than Father Dalton (honestly, Mabel, he must have been tired, with school, and so many other duties through the week, and the Xavier Ephphetaus all wanting to have him marry them on Sunday) again emerged from the sacristy to the altar steps, awaiting the coming up the aisle of another bridal party.

In the great church it was hard to make out just who they were. As they approached the chancel rail, it was a real surprise to note petite Mae Butler, linked arm in arm with tall Michel Leo. She was the bride-elect and he best man. A few feet following came dainty Nellie Costello, the bridemaid, with the bridegroom, Julius Kieckers. You remember Mae was one of Prof. Currier's own articulation girls at Fanwood, and a long line of graduates will recall Julius Kieckers for the pranks he played when Prof. Jenkins directed the Trenton School.

Both the bride and bridemaid were becoming white gowns, and such immense picture hats of the same color! One really had to bend one's head to catch a glimpse of who their wearers were. Again Father Dalton repeated the ritual of Mother Church, and as in the first ceremony, his smiling and happy felicitations to the newly-weds preceded by his blessing, caused the five hundred or more hearing and deaf friends present to become infected with the Dalton happy-go-lucky expression. And the end is not yet. The calendar of the next two months will keep Father Dalton busy, except when he is on his retreat.

Sessions of the Deaf Mute Branch of the Catholic Education Association will convene in this city, June 28 to July 5. Clergy and religious interested in the deaf are expected to attend from all over the country. Cathedral College, Madison Ave. near 50th St., has been assigned for the use of the deaf-mute educators. Peculiarly right in the section of this city where the first school for the deaf was located. From reliable information, the deliberations of the association will be of a semi-public character. During their stay in Manhattan, the members will make their headquarters at the Hotel Commodore. A reception to the members of the deaf-mute branch is to be tendered by Xavier Ephphetaus during the week. A committee, under direction of Father Dalton, and representing the X. E. S., the Sodality of St. Joseph Institute, and the Young Men's Sodality, having charge of the details. Rev. H. A. Moeller, S. J., is President of the Deaf-Mute Section, and Rev. Henry Waldhans, secretary. Outside the educational matters to be taken up, it is probable the members will give some attention to a United Organization among the adult Catholic Deaf.

With the opening in September, the monthly dues of the X. E. S. will be increased to 25 cents, and a proportionate increase in sick benefit of $5 a week for seven weeks. President Lonergan called the executive meeting to order recently. Resignation of the Treasurer, Miss Beatrice Chanler, who is at the paternal home in Genesee, N. Y., resulted in the temporary assignment of J. F. O'Brien to the office. An order for X E S. emblems was given. The treasury account is nearing the $2,000 mark. Among the new members admitted to the Relief Benefit were Wm. Davis, James McMahan, Joseph Gabriel, Joseph Denman, Thomas Egan, VanGoelz, among others. Miss McKinnon's design for the emblem found general favor. President Lonergan expects to announce in time committee to arrange for Ephpheta Sundays outing.

The realization of the late Father McCarthy for the Welfare of the Catholic deaf is in course of fulfillment. The commendable efforts of Miss Nora Joyce to make a home for deaf self-supporting working girls had the approbation of the late Rev. Director. However, he advocated, such a home will be made permanent if placed under the control and management of a Religious Order. The Ladies of St. Joseph have again taken up the matter, and the dwelling on East 15th St., known at present as St. Elizabeth's Home, through their effort, and the help of a wealthy patron, is now undergoing alterations. Miss M. Josephine Partell is an active worker among the ladies interested in the project. Without transgressing on the contemplated plans of the ladies, it may be announced the arrangements will provide for a Catholic Society Centre where all the deaf will be welcome in addition to the Home or club.

Among the visitors at X E. S. meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Hodes, Mrs. Isabel Willets, Tom Tracy, of "The Oaks," James McArdle, a protégé of Quaker team—Ryan and Sweeney. Along with him, Earle Butts and Will Booth, from Alabama, who are seeking their fortune in a near Quakerville.

For the combined Sodality of St. Joseph's, Brooklyn and Westchester, President Tom O'Neil, through Treasurer Higgins, announced a net profit of $48.56 from the barn dance staged by the three organizations. Each shared in the profits on a 33 basis, and the President Lamberson and Wolfe, as well as President O'Neil, went home smiling.

Saturday evening, June 5th, was marked by a downpour of rain, but this did not dampen the spirits of the crowd that wended its way to St. Mark's Chapel in Brooklyn to observe the 28th anniversary festival of the Brooklyn Guild, and to do honor to the memory of that beloved friend of the deaf—Dr. Thomas Gallaudet. Nearly a hundred were present.

Rev. Dr. Chamberlain opened the program with prayer, and then delivered a short address on Dr. Gallaudet's life and work. Miss Caddy followed, who recited Mr. Hodgson's poem on Gallaudet. Lieutenant Donaldson, of the U. S. Navy, a friend of the Brooklyn Guild then was introduced, and with Dr. Chamberlain interpreting, told of some of the places he had visited while on his ship. Miss Caddy then recited "My Country, 'Tis of Thee," and then after a few remarks from the Guild President, Mr. McLaren closed the literary part of the evening. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were next in order, and the ensuing time was spent in conversation.

At the Closing Exercises of the Institution for the Improved Instruction of Deaf-Mutes (Lexington Avenue School) held on Friday morning, June 11th, announcement was made by Principal Harris Taylor that the Directors of the Institution have decided to present a gold medal to be known as "The Evelyn Taylor Prize" (in memory of the beloved wife of Principal Taylor), to a present or former pupil of the Institution, "for distinguished and unselfish efforts for the welfare of the deaf." This new honor has been awarded to Mr. Marcus L. Kinner.

Badgemaker Jim Hanley has turned out a swell red, white and blue pennant for No. 23 Frats. It is worth the small cost he asks. By the by, it may surprise some of the pessimists to know the local Frat Division was represented in large numbers at the late Mission, and at the entertainment to raise funds for entertaining the Educators, fifty of the Brothers of President Lonergan, among the silent Elks, came to see his do his behind-the-footlights act.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Rau went recently for a short vacation to Asbury Park, where they have friends, and where they enjoyed the summer pleasures of this popular resort. Their trip included June 19th, anniversary of their wedding, which took place on that date last year; and this fact made their visit to the Jersey shore an event of more than usual interest.

Leo Greis, of Bayport, L. I., is again employed as gardener, at the place he first worked at last Summer. There is a small park across the street from the mansion. The place has changed ownership, and is now the permanent home of Judge John Hayer, of New York or Brooklyn. Leo has full charge, being the one at present employed.

Miss Alice Player was married to Mr. Henry Uhrig, at St. Michael's Roman Catholic Church, Brooklyn, on Thursday afternoon, June 10th. The bride was educated at Fanwood and the groom at the Westchester School. A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Eunice Brewer, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., is now spending her vacation at Albany, N. Y., and will stay about two weeks with her old schoolmate, Mrs. Minekev (nee Clara De Ronville). We all hope they will have an enjoyable time. It is Eunice's first visit to Albany.

Herbert Gunner, of Chicago, expects to be in New York in July, for a visit of a week or so. This will be his first visit since leaving New York nineteen years ago.

Miss Tillie Michaels, a sister of Mr. Samuel Michaels, died in Brooklyn, on May 26th, aged 23 years. Sympathy is offered to Mr. Michaels in his bereavement.

Keep February 5th, 1921, in your mind, that Greater New York Division, No. 23, will have a Mask Ball at Imperial Hall, Brooklyn, N. Y.

A baby girl, weighing eleven pounds, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Julius Kaman, on Friday evening, June 11th, 1920.

Mrs. William Fitzgerald (nee Katie Elsworth) died on June 13th. An extended mention will be printed next week.

Church Mission to Deaf-Mutes.

NOTICE—Beginning with June 27th, and continuing until the end of August, services will be held at St. Ann's Church, N. Y., every Sunday at 11 A.M., instead of 3 P.M. Services at all other places except the Gallaudet Home will be discontinued during July and August.

Obituary

Robert Franklin Clark, a lifelong resident of Vicksburg, Mich died Sunday morning, May 30th, at the ripe age of 77 years. He had been ailing for about a year and a half, with a disease pronounced incurable, in the left ear, which probably hastened his death, for otherwise his health was unusually good for one so advanced in age.

Mr. Clark was one of the few remaining original pioneers of Michigan, who helped lay the foundation of civilization and liberty sixty years back, and many a pleasant and profitable afternoon at his home on Maple Street was devoted to entertaining his deaf visitors and callers with ancient tales of the early struggles and hardships of the patriots of his time, some of the stories rivalling Hawthorne's "Grandfather's Chair."

These, together with the fine points of the gentleman's character, contributed largely to the lasting friendship, affection and esteem, which nearly all the deaf people of Western Michigan cherished for him, and it will be painful news when they learn that he is no longer among the living.

Mr. Clark was born in Constantine, Mich., December 15th, 1843. His parents were from New York State. It was when he was one year old that the parents made the startling discovery that he was deaf. This affliction was bad enough, but the grief of the

FANWOOD.

From time immemorial, the Commencement Exercises of this Institution have been held on the third Tuesday in June, but this year it was decided to hold the same on the following Thursday instead. We have always had an understanding with the Clerk of the Weather Bureau to reserve the former day for us, and as usual, Tuesday was an ideal day. But not having made any particular arrangements with this august personage for Thursday, the elements did not favor us, and we were compelled for the first time since the inauguration of outdoor Commencement Exercises eleven years ago, to repair to the Chapel. Invitations had been sent out to over 3000 people, with the expectation that the Exercises would be held on the Lawn where all could be comfortably accommodated.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, more people came than could be possibly seated in the Chapel, although 200 extra camp chairs had been placed therein. As a consequence, when the capacity of the Chapel had been reached and the doors closed, the hundreds of people who failed to gain admittance were sorely disappointed, very much to our regret.

The general consensus of opinion was that the exercises were better than ever before, which seems to be the case each year.

Among this prominent people were the President of the Institution, General Francis V. Greene; James B. Ford, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors; Dr. Charles A. Leale, Chairman of the Committee of Instruction; Colonel Samuel W. Miller, Chief of Militia Division on Governor's Island; Rev. Dr. John Chamberlain, Rector of St. Ann's Church for Deaf-Mutes; and many others.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the New York Institution for the Instruction of the Deaf and Dumb held on June 9th, 1920, the following Memorial was unanimously adopted:

"The Board has heard with profound sorrow of the death of our President-Emeritus, the Reverend Charles Augustus Stoddard, D.D.

"His activities covered a wide range. Educated at Williams College, a student at the University of Edinburgh and at the Free Church of Scotland Theological Seminary, a graduate of the Union Theological Seminary, he traveled in many lands, was the author of widely read books of travel, was for fourteen years the Pastor of the Washington Heights Presbyterian Church in this city, for a full generation the Editor of a weekly journal 'The New York Observer,' which had great influence in moulding public opinion not only in New York but throughout the United States, President of the Canton Christian College, of the American Seamen's Friend Society, Vice-President of the American Foreign Christian Union, of the American Tract Society, Honorary Secretary of the Evangelical Alliance, Member of the International Law Association and of the American Oriental Society.

"As Preacher, learned Divine, Editor, Author, and friend of Missionaries and Seamen, his long career was filled with distinction. But it may safely be said that next to his Pastoral and Editorial work the subject which most fully engrossed his thoughts and appealed to his heart was the welfare of the New York Institution for the Instruction of the Deaf and Dumb. He came on the Board in May 1869, was Chairman of the Executive Committee from 1874 to 1888, Second Vice-President in 1882, First Vice-President in 1887, President in 1900, President Emeritus in 1917. He represented the Institution at many National Conventions and at several International Assemblies held in European countries.

"Outside of his official activities he was personally endeared to us all by his kindly and sympathetic nature, his generous toleration of opposing views, his unfailing courtesy, and his unremitting attention to everything that concerned the Institution, its Officers, Directors, Teachers and Pupils.

"He died full of years and honors, and his genial presence will be sadly missed at our meetings.

"Resolved, That this Minute be spread in full upon our Records and that a copy of the same, suitably engrossed, be sent to Dr. Stoddard's family."

Ivy or class Day ceremonies were duly and appropriately carried out on June 10th, Thursday. After a brief talk to the graduates in his private office about the class motto and various other subjects appertaining to graduation, Principal Gardner gave the signal for the exercises to begin, and the graduates then marched solemnly out of the main hall door, and received the salute of the battalion. All marched to the spot selected to plant the Ivy in, and after the Ivy Orator's essay, this was done. Members of the Faculty, Dr. Fox and Principal

Gardner, each addressed them. In the evening the annual ivy party was given.

Accompanied by their invited guests—Mr. Hodgson, Rev. Kent and Lieut. Lux—the Protean Society again revived the ancient tally-ho by a trip to City Island, via a big bus. The start was made at about 8:30 A.M., June 9th, and the racket and din made by horns and vocal organs were a source of astonishment to a great number of pedestrians along the streets.

Upon arrival at the Island, boats and swimming apparel were hired for the day, and after a luncheon all went out in their respective boats. Cadet Captain B. Cohen and his crew (Lieut. Lux and Cadet Captain Moscovitz), made a haul of fifteen fish between them. Skipper McVernon and his bunch of galley slaves had an eventful time, as the skipper found Whalen and Cattannach merely handsome ornaments and not conducive to rowing, whereas he has some beautiful blisters to vouch for his strenuous labors as a boiler and engine. Dinner was served at Ryans, much to the satisfaction of all present, and about 10:30 the return trip was made, which, for the additional volume of noise, no doubt created by the expansion of energy from the dinner, was exactly the same as on the trip going.

Many old and familiar faces were once more seen on the Fanwood diamond when the school boys met and defeated the Alumni.

The beginning of the game was started with a rush and rip, but the old timers soon found that they could not hold their own after so many years without practice, and so youth triumphed, by a score of 8-3.

A halt was called in the 8th inning, and Major Van Tassel, in the absence of Col. Gardner, presented Uhl, Stecker and Cattannach, with the school letter—F, for meritorious work during the season. The first named two also received prizes of fountain pens, presented by the Alumni Association, for good work during the game.

On Sunday, June 13th, Rev. William Adams Brown, a Professor at the Union Theological Seminary and also a member of the Board of Directors, delivered the Baccalaureate Sermon to the graduates, before a large assemblage in the chapel.

His sermon was based on "faith," "for he that hath faith can conquer the world."

His sermon was very instructive and was appreciated by all. Following the Baccalaureate Sermon came the dress parade and drill. Several army officers were present and reviewed it, and among them was one well known to us—Captain Hearn. After seeing the Provisional Company give a short drill, he complimented them for their superiority. Major Van Tassel then presented, in the name of the Spanish War Veterans, a silver cup to the Company. This was because that organization felt it a duty to give such a cup, as the Provisional Company was prevented from competing with some other Companies in the 12th Regiment Armory who would withdraw if we competed.

The sounding of taps on Thursday, June 17th, at 6 P.M., brought to a close the one Hundred and Second Annual Commencement of the Institution. A large crowd that witnessed the exercises were much impressed with the work of the Montessori pupils, as well as with the older and larger boys.

Following the Commencement the majority of the pupils departed for their homes to enjoy the summer vacation, and those that remained went the next day.

The writer of this column is one of this year's graduates, and so those that have read and perhaps enjoyed the news herein, throughout the term, will now read for the last time his items. It is my hope and wish that my successor be a more able and interesting correspondent than

OHIO.

[News items for this column may be sent to our Ohio News Bureau, care of Mr. A. B. Greener, 998 Franklin Ave., Columbus, O.]

June 12, 1920—The Advance Society held its monthly meeting in the Library of the School, Friday evening, June 4th. A slight correction was made in the minutes.

Mr. Zell, chairman of the Spread Committee, reported the amount spent for the Spread given at the close of the last meeting. A vote of thanks was given him for arranging the ball, and looking after the welfare of his guests.

The Balzar Truck Company was given a vote of thanks for reduction of fare in taking picnickers up to the Home and back, May 31st.

The president was authorized to appoint a committee of five to prepare an entertainment for the Alumni Association reunion next September.

The Society has already contributed over $700 for the men's building at the Home, and a motion was made that an even thousand be given to the project, to be paid within a year by pledge.

A committee, Messrs. Burcham, W. Work and J. B. Showalter was appointed to co-operate with the N. A. D. Branch, the Ladies' Aid Society and the Columbus Division of the N. F. S. D., for a union basket picnic at the Home for Deaf, on Monday, July 5th.

A great time is expected, for there will be games and amusements and other attractions.

Those attending can go up by car or truck. If the former is taken, go on 8:30 or 9:30 car, and carriages will convey people to the Home from the car line.

The Home is just the place for a picnic, out in the open country, pure air, nature in her glory, and there is less risk of injury from 4th of July fireworks. Every deaf person in and around Columbus is invited to be one of the crowd.

Treasurer Zell reported the net receipts from the May 31st picnic at $61.39, all of which goes to the Building Fund.

The curtain has rung down on the school year 1919-1920, and the pupils are again scattered to their homes for a three-months stay with their parents and friends. The last chapel service was held, Tuesday morning.

Miss Brown, a missionary to China, with a friend was present, and gave a short but interesting address on the customs and manners of the people she was among. She said there were many deaf children there with no schools to teach them, and hence grew up in total ignorance. At meals the people use their fingers for knives, forks and spoons, and as to dress, the girls were wrapped up in one piece with a band fastened around the waist, while the boys ran about with very little covering for the body. The pupils of the United States should appreciate the advantages they have in securing an education, and make the most of them.

Dr. Patterson spoke of Home, and recited Payne's poem of "Home, Sweet Home," and then advised them how they could make their homes sweet in a variety of ways by relieving their parents in some of the things about their homes. He wished all a pleasant vacation.

Superintendent Jones cautioned them to return promptly at the opening of school, September 16th. Coming at a later date worked a disadvantage to them and their teachers.

After chapel pupils went to their classes, and those entitled to them received promotion cards from their teachers. At eleven o'clock they were dismissed for the term.

Quite a number of parents came for their children and took them home during the day, but the general exodus came Wednesday morning, and by noon of that day, with one or two exceptions, all were homeward bound, and the great building in the evening looked like a banquet hall deserted, for the lights that had shown through the windows were now non est, the revelers having left for other parts, and utter stillness prevailed throughout the halls and rooms that hitherto were alive with commotion.

The Columbus N. A. D. Branch held a meeting in the Library of the school last evening, with thirty-three members present.

Rev. C. W. Charles in his travels through Ohio, Michigan and Indiana, gave some observations as to the trend for the N. A. D. Convention. There was much enthusiasm for it. The Detroit deaf are leaving no stone unturned to make the Convention the biggest ever, and that the entertainments for the members shall be aplenty and grand. Detroiters expect an attendance of not less than 3000, and are striving to bring it up to 4000. All the smaller towns around Detroit are doing their best for the success of the meeting. Ohio will have a good representation.

Mr. Charles also spoke of the efforts being made throughout Ohio for the Home Building Drive. In every city he has visited, the deaf speak encouragingly of what they will accomplish. Cincinnati, Dayton, Toledo, Cleveland, Bellaire, Zanesville, Columbus and several other places, are all doing nicely. Superintendent Jones, Chairman of the Building Committee, was smiling last evening when he counted up that nearly $2,000 had been received by him from Mr. J. B. Showalter, Chairman of the Executive Committee for the Drive.

A Committee was also appointed to act with other societies for a union picnic on Labor Day. Miss Cloa Lamson asked for suggestions for stunts to be given during an entertainment at the Alumni Association Reunion.

It is more than likely persons going from Columbus to Detroit will go via Hocking Valley, leaving here at 6 A.M. and arrive in Detroit at 11:50 P.M., or take the 10 train and arrive in Detroit at 4 P.M. That will save a night on the road and sleeping car fare.

Mrs. Annie Callison, supervisor of the sewing room, left today for her home, Zanesville, to spend part of her vacation, and Miss Kolma Jansen, Girls' Supervisor, for Miami. Catherine Young will pass the vacation at the Home for the Deaf.

NOTES BY THE MISSIONARY.

MARRIED—At the bride's country home, near Salinesville, Columbus Co., Ohio, on Wednesday evening, June 9th, by the Rev. C. W. Charles, Mr. Lester W. Borchert and Miss Verna M. Goddard. Only a dozen immediate relatives of the bride witnessed the ceremony. A sumptuous supper followed. The happy couple will reside at the groom's parental home, 2074 West 45th Street, Cleveland, until they can find a home of their own.

In Mansfield, the Missionary baptized Mrs. Florence Bowers Baker, and Mrs. Lillie Woodland Price, and in Canton the sacrament was administered to the infants of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Slusser and of Mr. and Mrs. David Barwell.

The Canton Society of the Deaf enjoyed a strawberry festival at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brown, east of the city, on Saturday afternoon, the 12th.

The Cleveland Mission realized $371 for their church building fund on June 2d, in spite of heavy rain. The larger portion of the sum was raised through Chairman Judd's sale of chance tickets on a fine camera.

The Mission will have a benefit picnic at Euclid Beach Park, on July 6th, afternoon and evening.

There is a spirit of hope and courage among the Ohio deaf in their Home Cottage Fund drive. In Zanesville, Mansfield, Youngstown, and perhaps other places, half of the local quota has been reached or passed. Columbus has over $2,225, and Chairman Jones, by this time, has received $2,000 in cash. Subscription blanks were distributed to 250 pupils on their home going this week, to raise money among their home people.

Mrs. Hattie Palmer Cavanaugh, of Mansfield, entered the home as a resident on the 4th inst.

Early in May, Charles Kirkham and his parents, of Youngstown, were called to Emmitsburg, Md., to attend the funeral of his uncle, who had held the pastorate of an old Lutheran Church there 28 years, gaining the deep love and esteem of the people. After the funeral they both visited Gallaudet College for a brief time, for a consultation in regard to admission. Charles met his old friend Eugene McConnell there, and regretted that he had to cut short his visit in the city.

Mrs. Helen Friday Trask is quite low with a complication of diseases, at her home, 11903 Asbury Avenue, Cleveland. She has been an invalid for many years. The mission visited her last Monday morning. Her sister, Mrs. Cannon, of Akron, was with her then.

The Akron deaf very kindly presented the missionary with a purse of money last Sunday evening, after the service, to be used for the good of his work.

The mission also elected new officers as follows: President, W. F. Durian; Vice President, Leo Frater; Secretary, H. C. Ware; Treasurer, Ralph Dann; Trustees, Messrs. Ellis and Farke, and visiting committee, Mrs. Laingor and Mr. Clerc.

DETROIT.

The Local Committee N. A. D. had a business meeting Friday evening, June 4th. The members present were: Kenney, Jones, Wells, Waters, Hellers, Mrs. Colby, Miss Colby, Kresin, Berry and Schneider.

One of the biggest discussions was on the Housing and Transportation.

W. I. Wells and E. M. Bristol are to look after the program printing.

The Local Committee and N. A. D. hustlers are requested to give them their photos for the N. A. D. Souvenir program and also for the Silent Worker. E. M. Bristol will write up about the Detroit N. A. D., etc.

Messrs. Tripp and Waters are to take charge of the athletics, which will be one of the best of the entertainments.

The baseball game contest between the Canadians and Detroiters will be given. The sightseeing tour through Detroit and its beautiful surroundings will be under the direction of Adolph Kresin, of Port Huron.

The Local Committee and the deaf of Detroit wish to thank Mr. Marcus L. Kenner for the boost given the N. A. D. in the "Jewish Deaf" for May. The magazine is splendid, and is prized by those who have it.

The banquet hall has been reserved, is very large, roomy and well ventilated. The menu is delicious and tempting. Before the close of the banquet a photograph will be taken by our famous official photographer Alex L. Pach, of New York. A general outline of the entertainment program for the N. A. D. Convention: Monday evening August 9th—Reception, in Charge of Mrs. Behrendt, Chairman. Tuesday evening August 10th—Erie boat ride—Ivan Haymansson, Chairman (movies may take its place).

Wednesday evening August 11th—Grand ball, J. Hellers, Chairman. Thursday afternoon, August 12th—Sight-seeing tour—Adolph Kresin, Chairman.

Thursday evening, August 12th—Fraternity Meetings: Frats—P. Hellers, Chairman, Owls (?), Auxiliary, D. A. D., Mrs. Behrendt, Chairman.

Friday, August 13th—Picnic with games—P. Hellers, Chairman. Geo. Tripp is in charge of the athletics.

Saturday evening, August 15th—Banquet—Mrs. Colby, Chairman.

Photographer—Alex. L. Pach. Interpreters—Mrs. Grace Davis and Miss Violet R. Colby.

The magic word June brings visions of vacation days. Windows are open to the first spring breezes, curtains are on their way to the laundry; furniture is topsyturvy, the dust-cap, broom and mop, are seen among the deaf everywhere. They are doing this for you, who are coming to spend the August month here. On account of the Convention all the deaf have decided to stay in Detroit to make the Convention City the greater.

The high cost of living has elevated the lowly dandelion to lordly estate in this section of the country. Deaf here are seeking the green leaves everywhere, scouring lawns where the dandelions have been considered a pest, filling baskets with the green leaves. The leaves, young and tender, have long been eaten as greens similar to spinach.

Regular dinners, substantial and appetizing enough to satisfy you, will become a feature of the Helle Isle Casino, both daily and Sunday, beginning June 1, and will continue summer and fall if public patronage warrants. Special $1.50 luncheons will be served daily from 12 to 2:30 P.M., and $1.50 dinners from 6 P.M. to 9 P.M. in addition to the usual a la carte and Cafeteria service which is already provided.

The dinner menu includes: Vegetable soup, radishes, celery, special sirloin steak, hashed brown potatoes, sugar corn, cucumber and tomato salad, deep apple pie a la mode, or ice cream and cake, and tea, coffee or milk.

And the fresh vegetables are "from the garden on the island" the menu concludes. Parties may order special banquets for any time. Their cook is fine.

Under the auspices of the Division No. 2, N. F. S. D., a grand outing was held at the Palmer Park, Sunday all day, May 30th. Ralph Beaver was chairman of the day. A big crowd went and enjoyed the day. The folks of mature years seeked the depth of the park woods, shunning paths where young folks played in the orange sunlight glow. Out on the road sides were filled with long lines of motor cars. The Woodward line cars were busy running from A.M. to P.M. The conductors were jolly and enthused themselves with the deaf. Not a bit of paint or powder were on the women or girls' skin; just naturally natural they were, from the broad-heeled shoes to the cheap flats. The girls' hair were fixed over the ears in the most beautiful "buns."

WINNERS.

Sack Race, Moelbrink.

100 yards backward dash, Frank Friday.

50 yards dash, Mrs. Crough.

Distance ball throwing, Mrs. Sohnlund.

Indoor baseball throwing, Ira Sewell.

Taking out the necktie and retie, Jessie Stevens.

Each winner was awarded a prize of one dollar.

While playing distant ball throwing, Ira Sewell, a young deaf, who came here from North Carolina, met with a serious accident. The ball being in the air, he was in the act of pursuing it. Unfortunately, he ran too far across the public auto road, where there were many motors running. He then was struck by one, breaking two of his right ribs and tore his left arm badly. He was taken to the Receiving Hospital at once, where he is fairly resting, but it is feared that it will take many weeks to get well.

Three Harrahs and a Tiger for the Detroit Club boys. By beating the Flint Club boys, 13 to 12, the Detroiters glorified by holding on to the championship.

Memorial Day, the Detroit Club boys and Flint Club boys played baseball in the afternoon at the Northwestern Field, May 31st. Those who witnessed the game declared that both clubs played well, and they kept the crowd in anxiety throughout the contest. The Detroit boys had four clean straight-outs since the club was organized. Congratulations!

Both clubs will have another game on June 27th. Erd, of Flint, pitched for the Flint boys, while Frank Friday pitched for the Detroit boys. Louis Williams was the manager and Ivor Friday, umpire.

The boys will play a game with the Canadians during Convention in August. From now to the Convention time practical work must be given in all kinds of games, the boys obey the regulations.

Kalamazoo News of June 4th:

William Whitehorn, 80 years old, Vicksburg shoemaker, was instantly killed Friday afternoon, when he was struck by a Grand Rapids and Indiana train. He was taking one of his customary long hikes, when he was run down by the engine. Because he was deaf he did not hear the frantic warnings of other pedestrians who were near. He is believed to have been the oldest cobbler in Northwestern Michigan.

Mrs. William Murphy left for Tennessee Friday, June 11th, where she will visit her relatives and friends for a month.

Messrs. Nathaniel Hineke and Clarence Skinn, of Toledo, Ohio, were in Detroit, attending the baseball game.

Among those who spent Sunday, May 30th, and Decoration Day, in Detroit, were Miss Ethel Welch, George Gialez, H. Holmes, Clara Roberts, Hilma and Nina Sundquist, Clarence Knowlton, Gilbert, Biodeget, L. Williams, Gibney, Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman, Erd, Burton, Wm. McDonald, Vick, J. Oberlin, Arthur Dossier, T. Worley, C. Lindstrom and Claire Smallage.

Jean St. Amour, of Canada, and Carlton McNarsey, of Jackson, were in Detroit and witnessed the baseball game May 31st.

To help the new club house in Detroit, under the management of John Walter, a social was held at the D. A. D. hall, Saturday evening, May 29th, and admission was twenty-five cents.

Albert Zesike's deaf brother and hearing sister of Miland, Mich., spent Decoration Day with him in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Loh, of Wisconsin, sent greetings to the Detroit deaf, and they will attend the Convention in August.

Wm. Gibney, of Flint, was in Detroit over Decoration Day, enjoying meeting old friends. He told of his pleasant winter sojourn in California. He looks the picture of good health.

Under the auspices of the N. A. D. branch, we will have a big Fourth of July at Palmer Park, under the direction of Daniel I. Whitehead, president of the N. A. D. branch.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones, of Pennsylvania have moved here to live. Mrs. Jones has secured an easy job at the Siegel Co.

Marshall Shackell has secured a good position in Detroit, and will remain here.

Tony Kreiger, Reinold Hecht and Maurice Pernick spent three days visiting in Akron, Ohio. They met old friends and schoolmates and enjoyed an "old time" chat.

Frank Onick has shook the Detroit dust off his shoes and gone to Flint for good, as he accepted a good position there.

Clarence Modisett, of Toledo, Ohio, is in town for a short visit. He expects to go to California to join his father and brother and sister, June 15th.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will be pleased to know that they are enjoying good health, and are often seen at the meetings and socials, etc.

Frank Friday had the two middle fingers of his right hand "smashed" to a jelly at the Ford factory, where he worked.

Through the writer Charles Leofler, Monroe, Michigan, has kindly donated five dollars to the N. A. D. Fund. The members of the Local Committee and Branch N. A. D. send a standing vote of thanks to the donor.

The N. A. D. members and the deaf generally were disappointed over the non-appearance of Mr. Birck, who was scheduled to give a lecture for the benefit of the N. A. D. Convention, Saturday evening, June 5th.

The following has been prepared by the Committee on Transportation appointed at the recent meeting of the New York Branch of the N. A. D.:—

THROUGH RAIL LINES TO DETROIT, FROM NEW YORK CITY.

All Rail ticket from New York to Detroit:—New York Central, $23.20; Pennsylvania R. R., $23.20; Lehigh Valley, $21.91; Del., Lack. & Western, $21.91. Pullman Car accommodations extra—$4.62. All of above rates include war tax.

The Great Lakes Transit Corporation operates a line of steamers between Buffalo and Detroit. The steamer "Junata" leaves Buffalo at 10.30 A.M. (Eastern time) on Sunday, August 8th, and arrives in Detroit, Monday, August 9th, at 7.00 A.M., early enough for the opening of the Convention. The fare is $9.50 one way and the round trip is $18.00, exclusive of war tax, and includes meals and a berth.

N. Y. Central trains to Buffalo, that afford ample time to get the Lake steamer are:—

Western Express (No. 23) leaves New York at 6 P.M., reaches Buffalo at 6.30 A.M.

Buffalonian (No. 33) leaves New York at 9.30 P.M., reaches Buffalo at 8.20 A.M.

Tickets can be purchased for the through trip in New York, and reservations made on the Great Lakes Boat.

SAMUEL FRANKENHEIM,
MRS. ANNA SWEYD,
Committee.

Francis M. Luttrell passed away peacefully after an illness of seven weeks, from the effects of operations and pneumonia in Wichita, Kansas, on Sunday evening, at six o'clock, May 16th, 1920. He is survived by his wife and only daughter, a sophomore student in High School, and sister, Mrs. Champion L. Buchan, who arrived home from Chicago on time to be at his bedside in Wesley Hospital. The funeral service was very impressive, and the beautiful tribute of sympathy and lovely floral offerings was shown by their friends and the hearing Sunday school of the First Baptist Church, of which he was a member, and also the deaf Sunday School class that has been conducted in the church rooms every Sunday noon, mostly by Mrs. Buchan. He was laid away solemnly in a family lot in the beautiful Maple Grove Cemetery.

In the final issue of the Lone Star, the School paper of the Texas School for the deaf, there appeared a picture of the Texas colony in Akron, with A. C. Martin on the front row. We thought Martin was from Kentucky. But what we want to kick about is this. There could have been a mighty good write-up about that picture, but instead there was merely a mention of the fact that the entire crowd worked in the Goodyear factory and their names.
